- South Korea has impeached its president Park-Geun-Hey, who became the first democratically elected leader to be removed from office since democracy in the country. South Korea must now hold an election within two months to choose Ms Park's successor. This will be an unstable period for the country and an opportunity for its transformation. Pray that God will unite the churches in their prayer for a righteous and upright leader. Pray that the elected leader will become part of God's plan in the revival of Christians in Asia.
